When you need working capital, Mercury and your POS reseller can help. Mercury Payment Systems has partnered with two merchant funding companies to enable you to receive a lump sum advance against future credit card sales.

You can use it to:

- Purchase a new point-of-sale (POS) system
- Upgrade equipment
- Achieve PCI (card data security) compliance
- Expand inventory
- Fund sales and marketing activity
- Cover unexpected expenses
- Pay taxes
- Make payroll

MERCURY PAYMENT SYSTEMS

You'll enjoy several advantages over a traditional business loan

- Quick approval
- Automatic repayment from Visa and MasterCard sales
- Charged a fixed fee (not a percentage rate) to borrow a sum within an approved limit
- Repayment of the borrowed amount and fee occurs daily
- The advance is typically repaid within 6 – 12 months, with no penalty if it takes longer
- No sign-up or statement fees

Merchants who process payments with Mercury may apply for advance funding services from one of two providers through your POS reseller. Talk to your reseller today to learn more about how Mercury's merchant-friendly services can help you advance your business. You can contact your reseller or Mercury to request a brochure with details for the funding company that best suits your needs.

Think payments. Think Mercury.
